

Please, please do not allow banks to be exempt from Indiana's "do not call" list. Banks are retail sales businesses just as any other retailer. Do not allow them to persuade you otherwise. Banks require their employees to meet sales goals and in the past a portion of their sales efforts were made on the telephone. Banks are not sacred cows. Do not allow them to invade the consumers privacy.